Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 31, to Saturday Auguſt 4, 1792.

Whitehall, Auguſt 4.

THE following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Ely has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop and the Reverend Mr. Underwood, Prebendary of Ely, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Ely, ſenſible of the Happineſs we enjoy under our free and well-regulated Conſtitution in Church and State, approach your Majeſty's Throne to expreſs our grateful Satisfaction in your Majeſty's wiſe and ſeaſonable Proclamation againſt thoſe miſchievous and evil-minded Perſons who ſeek to overthrow it. Such a Proof of your paternal Concern for the ineſtimable Privileges of your People, and for the Support of all juſt and lawful Authority, is a freſh Incitement to that Affection and Veneration for your Perſon and Government, which will ever ſecure our firm Attachment to the one, and our ſteady and vigorous Support of the other.

The fallacious Doctrines which have been induſtriouſly diſſeminated for ſome Time paſt, with a View to poiſon the Principles of the People and to render them uneaſy and diſcontented, muſt be held in Abhorrence by every Friend to the Welfare of his Country. From whatever Source theſe baneful Tenets be derived, whether from the reſtleſs Spirit of diſappointed Ambition, the wild Effuſions of chimerical Speculations, or the Contagion of Foreign Confuſions, they cannot but in themſelves be conſidered as deluſive and deſtructive, and in their Conſequences fatal, not only to the Repoſe but the very Exiſtence of any regular Community.

On theſe Perſuaſions, and under the deepeſt Impreſſions of Gratitude to Almighty God our gracious Protector, and ſincereſt Affection to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, and influenced as we are with the higheſt Regard for that Political Syſtem which ſo temperately unites and regulates all our Civil and Eccleſiaſtical Duties, we will chearfully and thankfully comply with the Admonitions of your Majeſty's Authority and Wiſdom. We profeſs ourſelves zealouſly diſpoſed to detect and obviate every Sophiſtry and Error ſo perniciouſly calculated to miſlead the Unwary. To inculcate Peace and good Order, as far as our Influence extends, to promote an Intercourſe of Chriſtian Love and Charity amongſt all Denominations of our Fellow Subjects, and on every Occaſion to inculcate the Cauſe of Goſpel Truth and legal Freedom, the Baſis of our National Eſtabliſhment, againſt thoſe who inſidiouſly endeavour to ſubvert them by their preſent dangerous and ill-timed Innovations.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Suffolk, has been preſented to the King by Alexander Adair, Eſq; Sheriff, accompanied by Sir John Rous and Sir Thomas Charles Bunbury, Baronets, Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Suffolk, humbly beſeech your Majeſty to accept our unfeigned and grateful Thanks for the affectionate Inſtance of your Majeſty's jeſty's Attention to the Happineſs and Proſperity of your Kingdom, teſtified by the late Proclamation.

Truly ſenſible of the invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy, by the Favour of Diaine Providence, under a well-regulated Government, and convinced that Freedom cannot be preſerved but by a due Reverence to the Laws, we hold it our Duty to ſtand forward and avow our Abhorrence of every Meaſure that has any Tendency to affect our excellent Conſtitution, in Church or State, by raiſing groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents in the Minds of your faithful Subjects, and bringing into Contempt the wiſe and wholeſome Proviſions made at the Time of the Glorious Revolution.

The Veneration which that noble Fabric (raiſed by the Virtue, and cemented by the Blood of our Anceſtors) inſpired in us, is, we are now more than ever convinced, the prevailing Sentiment of your Majeſty's Subjects, and ſo deeply engraven on our Hearts as to keep us ever vigilant in it's Protection againſt the inſidious Attacks of it's falſe Friends, and the open Aſſaults of it's profeſſed Enemies.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we will exert our utmoſt Zeal and Ability in promoting the Object of your paternal Goodneſs, the Preſervation of Public Order, and a juſt Regard for a Syſtem of Government, the peculiar Bleſſing of this, and the Envy of all ſurrounding Nations; and we moſt anxiouſly pray that your Majeſty's Reign may be long extended over a loyal, happy, and free People.

Signed at the Requeſt, and on the Behalf of the County Meeting,

Alex. Adair, Sheriff.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County Palatine of Cheſter has been preſented to the King by the Right Honourable the Maſter of the Rolls, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County Palatine of Cheſter, beg Leave to offer our united Thanks for your Majeſty's late moſt gracious Proclamation, which we conſider as a further Inſtance of your Majeſty's unceaſing Attention to the true Welfare of theſe Kingdoms.

We have viewed with Concern the Efforts of a few miſguided Individuals, to interrupt the Peace and Proſperity of this happy and flouriſhiug Country, by the induſtrious Propagation of ſeditious Writings, tending to the Subverſion of all good Order and Government.

We are ſenſible of the Bleſſings enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, and obſerve with a very peculiar Satisfaction the numerous and unanimous Addreſſes which your Majeſty's Proclamation has called forth, as they prove beyond a Doubt that the Sentiments which we here offer to your Majeſty muſt be conſidered as the prevailing Sentiments of the Nation.

Happy thus to coincide with the general Voice of the People, we feel ourſelves bound, by the moſt important Motives, to preſerve, to the utmoſt of our Power, that Subordination ſo eſſential to the Happineſs of every Individual, as well as of the Community at large, and to declare, in the fulleſt Manner, our moſt zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

The following Addreſs of the Alderman, High Steward, Capital Burgeſſes and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Malmſbury has been preſented to the King by Edmund Wilkins, Eſq; High Steward, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Alderman, High Steward, Capital Burgeſſes and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Malmſbury in the County of Wilts, being the whole Body Corporate in our Common Court aſſembled, impelled by a deep Senſe of Gratitude and Reſpect for your Majeſty, and firm Attachment to the unparalelled Conſtitution of our Government under your paternal Protection, preſume to preſent this humble Addreſs of our ſincere Thanks for the recent Favor ſhewn us by your Royal Proclamation; a Pledge to your People of your continued Care and Attention to the Preſervation and Security of their juſt Rights and Liberties, founded in equal, mild and adequate Laws; prohibiting the late wicked and ſeditious Publications, and reſtraining the ſiniſter and inſidious Attempts, which we have ſeen with Concern and Contempt, to excite Tumult and Diſorder, and Diſcontent in the Minds of your well-diſpoſed Subjects, ſo evidently aimed at the Subverſion and Deſtruction of the ſame; the Shield of our internal Safety, Peace and Happineſs.

We aſſure your Majeſty of our unalienable Fidelity and Affection for your Royal Perſon and Family; and, as a Teſtimony of it, will moſt religiouſly and chearfully obey the Commands in your Royal and gracious Proclamation; and by every Example and Precept endeavour to promote good Order, and keep quiet the Minds of your faithful People, in Confidence of their happy State within our Juriſdiction.

Signed with our Names, and ſealed with the Arms of our Borough, the 23d Day of July, 1792.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, and others, of the Borough, Town, and Vicinage of Weſtbury, has been preſented to the King by Lord Abingdon, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, and others of the Borough, Town, and Vicinage of Weſtbury, in the County of Wilts.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, Manufacturers, Principal Traders, and others of the Borough, Town, and Vicinage of Weſtbury, ever fully ſenſible of the Bleſſings derived to us from the Conſtitution and Government under which we live, but more eſpecially ſo in the preſent Moment, when the Anarchy and Diſtractions of other Countries ſerve but in the ſame Degree to enhance the Value of our own enviable Situation: We ſay, under ſuch Circumſtances, we cannot but admire, and, in admiring, exult in the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's late Proclamation, the Object and End of which being, to a happy, and it is to be hoped to a now united People, the Maintenance and Preſervation of that Conſtitution and Government, as it is, both in Church and State, equally ſecure from the Dangers of foreign Diſturbance as from the more internal Miſchiefs of chimerical Innovation.

And

And whilſt, on the one Hand, we are led to join the general Voice, in laying at your Majeſty's Feet our heartfelt Thanks for this freſh Mark of your Majeſty's paternal Regard to the Public Welfare, and to expreſs our juſt Indignation at, and our utter Abhorrence as well of thoſe ſeditious Libels that have been ſo induſtriouſly propagated, as of thoſe viſionary Projects, ſpeculative Plans, and novel Doctrines, which the Fanaticiſm, Hypocriſy, or mock Philanthropy of a few ſelf-intereſted Men would impoſe on the Credulity of Mankind, with no leſs Inſult to the Laws of the Land, than to the Subverſion of all Order and Subordination; ſo, on the other Hand, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our utmoſt Diligence, and of every watchful Endeavour on our Part, not only to ſuppreſs all ſuch ill-deſigned Proceedings, but to bring the Authors and Abettors of them to that Detection, Shame, and Puniſhment, which Offences and Offenders like theſe ſo loudly call for, and ſo deſervedly merit.

The following Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stourbridge has been preſented to the King by Lord Dudley, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stourbridge, in the County of Worceſter, beg Leave to offer our grateful Thanks, as for every other Inſtance of your paternal Care and Goodneſs, ſo particularly for your late moſt ſeaſonable Proclamation.

Deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government, and of the Excellency of our glorious Conſtitution, we behold with Grief and Indignation the ſeditious Attempts of evil-minded Men, who would perſuade us to barter theſe ſolid Bleſſings for ſhadowy Refinements.

To reſiſt all ſuch inſidious Attempts; to approve ourſelves loyal Subjects to your Majeſty, and true Friends to the Conſtitution; and to ſecond the Views of your gracious Proclamation, is our Duty, is our Wiſh, and ſhall, to the utmoſt of our Power, be our Object and Aim.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Sandwich has been preſented to the King by Sir Horace Mann, Bart. and Philip Stephens, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Sandwich, in the County of Kent.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Sandwich, in the County of Kent, humbly requeſt Permiſſion to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, and to return your Majeſty our ſincereſt Thanks for your late gracious Proclamation againſt divers Writings, deſigned to excite Sedition among us, and to leſſen our Reverence for the preſent Government and Conſtitution.

And we do deſire further to aſſure your Majeſty that we will, in Obedience to your Majeſty's Commands, exert ourſelves to preſerve Peace and good Order, and on all Occaſions endeavour to teſtify our Gratitude for the Security and Happineſs we enjoy under the impartial Diſpenſation of the Laws, and the mild Adminiſtration of your Majeſty's Government.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in Sandwich aforeſaid, the 9th Day of July, 1792.

Whitehall, Auguſt 4.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our humble and grateful Acknowledgements for your Majeſty's late Royal Proclamation, ſo well calculated to diſcourage and defeat the wicked Attempts of the Enemies of our happy Conſtitution. We have obſerved with the utmoſt Satisfaction the Sentiments expreſſed to your Majeſty by the Two Houſes of Parliament on the Wiſdom and Expediency of that Meaſure; and we think it our Duty to aſſure your Majeſty of our zealous and hearty Concurrence in thoſe Sentiments.

We are juſtly ſenſible of all the Bleſſings which, under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, are ſecured to us by the eſtabliſhed Laws and Conſtitution of our Country. We know that the collective Strength of the Empire, its Wealth, its Credit, and its Commerce, are inſeparably connected with the Preſervation of that Conſtitution; and your Majeſty may rely on our firm Determination to diſcharge, in our ſeveral Stations, the Duty which we owe to ourſelves and our Poſterity, by reſiſting all Attempts againſt the Public Tranquillity, whether appearing in Acts of open Violence or in the Circulation of Doctrines founded on deluſive Theories, equally inconſiſtent with the Safety, and repugnant to the general Sentiments of the Nation.

[Tranſmitted by William Pigott, Eſq; Sheriff.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Nottingham, at the Moot Hall, in Mansfield in the ſaid County, on the 16th Day of July, 1792, aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that, grateful for the Bleſſings we enjoy under a Form of Government more perfect than any which human Wiſdom hath hitherto deviſed, or Public Spirit carried into Execution, we think it our Duty to offer to your Majeſty our unfeigned Thanks for that parental Vigilance, which has been ſo lately exerciſed in endeavouring to preſerve thoſe Bleſſings to us.

We rejoice in an Opportunity of declaring, that whatever may be attempted by ſeditious Men, regardleſs of the Peace and Happineſs of Society, no Attempt Attempt whatever can leſſen our Reverence and Love for the Conſtitution of this Country, or our affectionate Loyalty to your Royal Perſon.

[Tranſmitted by Edward Thomas Gould, Eſq; High Sheriff, and the Right Hon. Lord Edward Charles Cavendiſh Bentinck and Charles Meadows Pierrepont, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County.]

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, met in a General Meeting of the Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, Commiſſioners of Supply and Heritors of the County of Murray.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Throne in order to expreſs with Gratitude our Thanks for the Care and Atention to the Welfare and Happineſs of your faithful People, manifeſted upon all Occaſions, and by your gracious Proclamation.

Highly ſenſible of the Happineſs we enjoy under our preſent Conſtitution, we look with Indignation upon thoſe who would excite a Spirit of Sedition and Licentiouſneſs, by holding forth to your Majeſty's Subjects inflammatory Repreſentations of Grievances which do not exiſt.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is our ſtedfaſt Reſolution to uſe every Endeavour to maintain the Authority of Government in its full Force, and to promote that Spirit of good Order and Tranquillity which is ſo neceſſary among all Ranks of Men for preſerving unimpaired that Conſtitution which renders us the Envy of ſurrounding Nations.

We alſo gladly embrace this Opportunity of heartily congratulating your Majeſty, upon the Succeſs of your Royal Arms in the Eaſt Indies, by which we have the ſtrongeſt Hopes that the Trade and Proſperity of this Kingdom will be greatly advanced, and its Peace permanently ſecured.

That your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free and happy People is our ſincere Prayer.

Signed by our Preſes, in our Name and by our Appointment, at Elgin, the 18th Day of July, 1792.

Fife, Preſes.

[Tranſmitted by the Earl of Fife.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Bury St. Edmund's, think it a Duty incumbent on us to return our unfeigned Thanks for the late Proclamation, and to expreſs our Regret that the Attempts of inconſiderate and ſeditious Men ſhould have called forth the Royal Interpoſition.

We take this Opportunity to repeat our abundant Satisfaction with the Conſtitution of this Kingdom as ſettled the glorious Revolution; and when we reflect on the many Circumſtances of National Happineſs which diſtinguiſh the preſent Moment, we cannot but indulge the Voice of Gratitude: That the Judges of the Land are independent: That the Functions of Juries are liberally and clearly aſcertained: That the Commerce of the Nation is extending: That the Reſources of the Empire are increaſing: That our National Character and Credit ſtand high amongſt Foreign Powers; and that there is perfect Peace throughout your Majeſty's Dominions both at Home and Abroad: Circumſtances that perhaps never before met to bleſs and aggrandize any People, and which we cannot contemplate without venerating the Conſtitution that has raiſed us to this enviable Situation.

We pray Almighty God to bleſs your Majeſty with Length of Days and all Happineſs; and that we and all your Subjects may appreciate, as we ought, the many Advantages which we derive from your juſt Government.

Dated the 23d Day of July, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

[Tranſmitted by Lord Charles Fitz Roy.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, holden at Kirton for the Diviſion of Lindſey, in tne County of Lincoln, think it our indiſpenſable Duty at this Seaſon to expreſs our grateful and unfeigned Acknowledgments for the recent Proof of your Majeſty's unceaſing Attention to the Welfare of your People, by iſſuing a wiſe and ſeaſonable Proclamation to check and ſuppreſs ſeditious Publications, and to avert the Miſchiefs of Civil Tumult and Commotion.

Senſible of the Excellence of the Britiſh Conſtitution, and enjoying under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government every Bleſſing of Civil and Religious Liberty, we view, with the moſt ſerious Alarm, every Attempt to deprive us of thoſe ineſtimable Advantages; we feel it the Duty of every good Citizen to exert himſelf upon an Occaſion ſo momentous; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we ſhall, as Magiſtrates, uſe every Endeavor, within the Diſtrict for which we act, to promote your Majeſty's gracious Intentions, and to give Efficacy to the Royal Proclamation.

By the Court,

Rich. Elliſon, Chairman.

[Tranſmitted by Rich. Elliſon, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Bewdley, in the County of Worceſter.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Bewdley, in Common Council aſſembled, in grateful Acknowledgment of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Attention to the Happineſs and Welfare of your People, moſt ſincerely thank your Majeſty for your late gracious Proclamation for ſuppreſſing thoſe ſeditious Publications, which have been lately circulated throughout this Kingdom for the Purpoſe of diſſeminating Diſcontent and Diſſatisfaction, of ſubverting our moſt excellent Form of Government, and of exciting Tumults and Diſorder in this flouriſhing and happy Country.

Truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under that Government as eſtabliſhed at the Revolution, and which has been ſtrengthened and confirmed by the many Acts paſſed in your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we will do every Thing in our Power, as Magiſtrates and good Subjects, to ſupport and preſerve our Conſtitution, the Pride and Glory of Britons and the Envy of other Nations, from every Attempt to

to ſubvert and deſtroy it; and as this Borough has been always faithful to your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Houſe, we rejoice in every Opportunity of teſtifying our Zeal and Fidelity to your Majeſty; and moſt ſincerely and ardently wiſh that you may long live to experience the Loyalty and Attachment of your People, and reign over a happy and united Kingdom.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in the ſaid Borough, this 11th Day of July, 1792.

[Tranſmitted by the Hon. Charles Fulke Lyttelton, Repreſentative in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

THE Freeholders, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Juſtices of the Peace of the Shire of Inverneſs, in General Meeting aſſembled, in conſequence of your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, on the Subject of the Publication of ſeditious Libels, beg Leave, with one united Voice, to approach your Majeſty with Aſſurance of Affection and Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family, and the firmeſt Loyalty to and Veneration for that Conſtitution under which we live, fully ſenſible that your Majeſty's mild and patriotic Adminiſtration procures us the Bleſſings of Peace, Liberty of Conſcience, Proſperity of Commerce, and Quietneſs to purſue a riſing Induſtry.

Fortunately for us, we have no Societies of a ſeditious Nature, nor any inflammatory Publications among us; and if there were, we ſhould uſe every Effort to counteract any Attacks on the Government, Civil Rights, and Liberties we at preſent ſo happily enjoy.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Campbeltown.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Campbeltown, for ourſelves and in Behalf of the Community at large, beg Leave moſt reſpectfully to approach the Throne, and to expreſs our unfeigned Gratitude to your Majeſty for your late gracious Proclamation againſt ſeditious and inflammatory Publications, and for preventing any Attempt to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity of the Nation.

Contented in the Poſſeſſion of rational Liberty and national Proſperity, and juſtly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy, we feel averſe to forego ſuch ſolid Advantages to make Way for ſpeculative Opinions, unlimited in their Views, and uncontrouled by any Syſtem.

Animated by theſe Conſiderations, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unfeigned Loyalty and Attachment to your Family and Government; that, in our reſpective Stations, we will exert ourſelves with that zealous Attention becoming faithful and loyal Subjects, to counteract the Attempts of thoſe, who, by ſome late ſeditious Publications, have endeavoured to render the Nation diſſatisfied with their preſent moſt excellent Conſtitution; and that we will, upon all Occaſions, to the utmoſt of our Power ſupport your Majeſty in Defence of that Conſtitution againſt all inimical and unwarrantable Innovations.

We muſt further beg Leave humbly to expreſs to your Majeſty the peculiar Satisfaction it affords us upon this Occaſion to coincide in Sentiment with the beſt of Princes, who ſo ably ſupported the permanent Intereſts of theſe Kingdoms when your Majeſty's Proclamation was under the Conſideration of the Houſe of Peers.

By Authority of Parliament,

Grocers Hall,
Auguſt 4, 1792.

RICHARD WHALLEY BRIDGMAN,
Clerk of the Grocers Company.

LOST,

ABOUT Ten or Twelve Years ago, a Parchment Roll, being an Exchequer Order, No. 156, dated the 25th Day of September, 1708, for Payment of an Annuity of 62l. 10s. under an Act of the Sixth of Queen Anne, to Mr. Thomas Colton. The Annuity was received until the Year 1780, by Mr. Thomas Fletcher, late of Cheapſide, London: Any Perſon who has the abovementioned Order, and will deliver it before the 20th Day of Auguſt next, to Mr. Pennington, Lamb's-buildings, Temple, ſhall be handſomely rewarded.

HIS Majeſty has been pleaſed to grant His Royal Letters Patent to Peter Litherland, for a Watch upon a new Principle, which, for Simplicity and Accuracy of Time-keeping, excels all others. This Watch may be made to beat only once every Second, and to point dead Seconds diſtinct, which proves to be of great Uſe in Aſtonomical Obſervations, &c. and which was never accompliſhed before without being ſo injurious to Time-keeping as to render the Watch uſeleſs.

Orders received by Litherland and Co. Liverpool, ſhall be duly attended to.—Public Notice will be given when and where they appoint Agents in England, Scotland and Ireland.

Newport, July 21, 1792.

MR. John Adams, late of Newport, in the Iſle of Wight, in the County of Southampton, Bookſeller and Stationer, having aſſigned his Effects to Robert Bird Wilkins, of Newport aforeſaid, Ironmonger, in Truſt for the Benefit of his Creditors: All Perſons to whom he ſtands indebted are requeſted to ſend an Account thereof to the ſaid Robert Bird Wilkins, within One Month from the Date hereof; and all thoſe who are indebted to the ſaid John Adams are deſired to pay the ſame within the aforeſaid Time to the ſaid Robert Bird Wilkins, who is duly authorized to receive the ſame, or they will be ſued without further Notice.
